HENRY BURT'S GOOD RACE.

There was some really good racing at Lakeside yesterday, and it was a treat for the crowd to get to the track, away from the heat and dust of the city.

A cool breeze was always to be found at some corner of the course and the man with the sprinkling cart kept the dust well laid during the entire afternoon.

Secretary Nathanson got together several Derby candidates in the third race, which was at one mile, and this event was the center of attraction. It furnished an interesting contest but the outcome was rather unsatisfactory inasmuch as the winner, Henry Burt, got away in front and had clear sailing all the way while Mr. Cushing's good colt Dyxona got off last and was badly interfered with on the first turn. The Bersan-Katherine Bassett colt won rather handily however and the chances are he would have beaten Dyxona the way they were hitched up on this particular occasion without being favored by racing luck. Still there are always any amount of "ifs" and "ands" after every race, and it is the opinion of a majority of the horsemen that the Cushing colt would probably have won with an equal break and no interference. However, Henry Burt went to the front at the start, and after setting the pace to suit himself, won without any hard effort. Leo Newell, with Coburn up, gave Dyxona the stoutest of arguments for second place and was only beaten by a nose for that position.

Uncle Jim Gray told a few friends after the Henry Burt race that the colt recently worked a mile at Lakeside with his weight up in 1:43.

Patron, the 7 to 10 heavily backed favorite, made a scandalous showing in the second race and this furnished material to gossip about the entire afternoon. Patron was three lengths in the lead and running under a stout pull on the stretch turn, when he belted to the extreme outside, losing about ten lengths of ground and letting Prestar come through on the inside and win. The crowd did not see Patron bolt and was at once up in arms against master Baker, who rode the horse. As a matter of fact Baker did the best he could to keep Patron straight, and all through the last furlong beat the horse over the nose with the butt end of his whip. It was one of those peculiar things that are bound to happen in horse racing for which no one can be blamed.

Mr. Cushing uncovered what may be a stake colt in John A. Clarke in the first race, who won in fast time with the greatest of ease. This youngster is a handsome piece of racing machinery by the World's Fair Derby winner Boundless-May Bee.

Barouche and Crowhurst seem to be a hard combination to beat and in a sensational way the pair won a well earned victory from Yana in the fourth race. Barouche was badly outrun in the first part of the race and on the home turn seemed hopelessly beaten but she came through on the inside with a rush under terrific punishment and won going away.

The fifth went to Jake Weber, who led from end to end, and Annowan, after sulking for the first half mile in the sixth, finally took a notion to run and beat his field rather handily. Jockey Dominick will probably be seen in the saddle at Lakeside today.

Coburn left last night for Louisville to ride a horse for Tom Hayes in the Turf Congress Handicap.

It was stated yesterday at the track that The Conqueror II. had worked a mile and a furlong in 1:55. Coburn has been employed to ride him in the big Handicap at Worth, Thursday.

Bolich & Sweet bought Fisher's Hornpipe yesterday for $800 from G. B. Watkins.

AUTUMN LEAVES' FINE RACE.

There is evidently an extensive area of jubilant good feeling pervading the famous Melbourne Stud Farm, and the inhabitants and neighbors thereof may rightfully rejoice over the sensational performance of Autumn Leaves at Louisville yesterday. Nothing is so dear to a breeder's heart as to have a horse of his own breeding make such a notable record, and that "Colonel Bill" feels pleasant just at present the following dispatch furnishes glowing evidence:

LEXINGTON, KY., April 30.—I won the Debutante Stakes at Louisville today with my grand filly, Autumn Leaves. I bred the filly and her dam, who is by Jim Gore. To beat a field of crack fillies over this historic course is victory enough, but to beat the track record, made by the flying Cleopatra, makes everything lovely at Melbourne. This is a great feather in Prince of Monaco's cap. When you consider that the great filly Endurance by Right, sold by me and as yet unbeaten, won her race yesterday in 49¹/₂, it makes Autumn Leaves' performance phenomenal.

WORTH HANDICAP WEIGHTS.

Secretary Nathanson's assignment of weights to the horses engaged in the Worth Handicap, which will be the star feature of the opening day, appears below. The handicapping is done on a low scale of weights with the right horses picked out for the highest impost. One effect must be to make a good many owners think their horses are fairly thrown in and the result should be a big field and one hard to fathom. Declarations are due today at 10:30 a. m. at $10 each. The weights are as follows:

Horse	Age	Wt.	Horse	Age	Wt.

RACING NEAR NEW YORK.

With the important Morris Park meeting slated to begin next Saturday, the following from the New York Sun of Monday will prove interesting to those who like to keep track of the cracks that perform down east:

"With the arrival of clear weather the trainers of the various stables of thoroughbred race horses at the local tracks have been enabled to begin preparations for the coming big events in earnest. Up to Saturday the track at Morris Park was in such a condition that it was impossible to work the horses there with any beneficial results. But on Saturday the going was so good that the trainers were filled with gratitude for the let up in the April deluge. Beginning today the different strings will come in from all over the country and by the middle of the week it is believed that stable room at the Westchester track will be at a premium. Arthur Featherstone's big string is expected to arrive today. He has a formidable array of runners and as most of them were in good shape when they left Kentucky it will not take long

Winner—Br. f. by Favor—Lady Abbess. Went to post at 2:38. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Suave showed much the most early speed and went to the front as soon as called on but was hustled along all through the last furlong to stall off Beauty Booker. The latter was under a drive all through the last quarter and hung on gamely. Edith Q. was on the outside to the stretch turn. She was always outrun. Only One dropped out of it in the stretch turn and was probably short. Suave, show, 7 to 5. Beauty Booker, show, 2 to 1. Edith Q. show, 1 to 2. Eleven Bells, show, 4 to 5. Winner—Ch. c. by Lord Esterling—Tarpeia II. Went to post at 3:18. At post 13 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. John Peters outran his field all the way. He is a quick breaker and was never in trouble at any part of it. Hans Wagner was easily the best of the others. He made up a lot of ground, but tired at the finish. Jaubert ran like a colt that likes a route. He is a slow beginner. Colonel Anderson was interfered with and knocked to his knees in the first quarter.

Scratched—24205 Andiphone, 103. Overweights—John Peters, 1 pound; Jaubert, 2; Treville, 4; Colonel Anderson, 4. John Peters, show, out. Hans Wagner, show, 4 to 5. Jaubert, show, 4 to 1.

Winner—B. f. by Strathmore—Amelia P. Went to post at 4:00. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second easily. Amelia Strathmore raced Tom Middleton into exhaustion in the first six furlongs and finished fast and strongly through the stretch. Peat was in a pocket in the stretch and was under a hard drive at the end. This race should improve him. Tom Middleton showed the most early speed, but tired and quit in the stretch. Rodd showed speed for three-quarters. Janowood ran poorly. Overweights—John McGurk, 1 pound; Janowood, 1. Amelia Strathmore, show, out. Peat, show, 2 to 5. Tom Middleton, show, 5 to 1. Winner—Ch. f. by Prince of Monaco—Lady Rover. Went to post at 4:32. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won ridden out; second driving. Autumn Leaves was well in motion at flag fall and opened up a gap before the others got to running well, but she was doing her best at the end to stall off The Esmond, who finished strongly. The latter was wearing down the winner. The Boston was made too much use of in the first three-eighths and was tiring at the end. Lady Appleby was practically left. This is a new track record.

to get them fit for their campaign that begins
on next Saturday.

"Trainer James Rowe of the Messrs. Keene's stable and Trainer Wyndham Walden with the Messrs. Morris' horses will be at Morris Park by tomorrow ready to put on the finishing touches. William C. Whitney's big stable got to the park last on Friday in the care of Trainer J. W. Rogers. What has been seen of the two-year-olds in the string creates the impression that a number of them will be entitled to bracketets in many of the stake events to take place at that course.

"During the past week C. H. Mackey's Banastar has been worked steadily in spite of the heavy track. He is said to have covered a mile in 1:52, the first half of which was completed in 53 seconds. Those at Morris Park who saw Banastar on this occasion said yesterday that it would not take much hard work to have him in his best racing form. Prince of Melrose and Frankfort also have shown rapid improvement, Frankfort, if anything, displaying the better form so far.

The Pepper stable, in charge of Trainer Davis has been working at Westchester. Queen Pepper and Prince Pepper have not been extended, but the youngsters Bonnie Lad, Long Glove, Joy Maker, Long Leaf and Whiskey King have answered the requirements with much speed at times. Queen's Messenger and King Edward have both covered a half mile in 52 1/2 seconds.

"The Parader and Dublin of T. J. Healey's big string have been doing miles inside of 1:50.
Carbuncle is also nearly ready. The others have been limited to light work daily. Emporium of the Murphy stable, that was purchased at the Marcus Daly sale and never has started, together with King Lief and Tower of Candles, has been doing reasonably fast work.
Rafaello, Kensington, King Pepper and Cyrano have been doing miles in 1:53.

"There has also been plenty of work at the Gravesend track. William Barrick's McMekin, a Brooklyn Handicap candidate, has been attracting attention. He is expected to make a big impression in his coming engagements.
Tom Welsh is rapidly preparing Bonibbert.
Muskadine, Blue Mantle, Catherine, Dark
Secret and Hoffman. Ildrim has been doing some substantial work the last few days, but is backward. It has been announced that the son of Kingston and Libbie L., who was considered the handsomest three-year-old in the east last year, has been declared out of all the stakes
in which he was entered in the Coney Island club's spring meeting. He was looked upon as one of the best in the stakes and handicaps in which the four-year-olds would be entered. His withdrawal probably means that he has gone amiss. Ildrim, next to Prince of Melbourne, was considered the best three-year-old in training last year. He won the rich Belmont Stakes at Morris Park in the colors of Eugene Leigh, and was beaten by only a neck

by Prince of Melbourne in the great Lawrence Realization Stakes at Sheepshead Bay. It was always the opinion that with a better ride Ildrim would have led the Prince in that race.

"Trainer Matt Allen has sent the crack colt Luck And Charity along at a clipping gait. He has satisfied himself that Major Dangerfield, Withers and Gold Heels will be ready at no distant date. Kinley Mack, now owned by J. B.
Haggis, has been jogging along at Gravesend under the watchful eye of Peter Wimmer. Last week the winner of the Brooklyn and Suburban handicaps last year did a mile in 1:53 1/2 under a strong pull. Green B. Morris' horses, also at Gravesend, have been making rapid strides.
He apparently has a promising two-year-old in Golden Cottage, the colt's victory in the Canar-sie Stakes at Aqueduct last Tuesday being an indication of his worth. Morris also has two good ones in Canard and Gold Spinner, especially the latter. Pupil, Modrine and others are very near being fit.

"Speculation as to the result of the rich Metropolitan Handicap, to be run at Morris Park on next Saturday, runs rife. A number of the candidates have been receiving preliminary work at Bannings and Aqueduct, including Brigadier, Sidney Lucas, Charentus, Heliobas, King Bramble, Knight of Rhodes, All Gold, Motley, St. Finnan, The Rhymer, All Green, Janice and others. There is a tendency to prefer Brig-adier's chances at present. Mr. Belmont's colt won a five-and-a-half furlong sprint at Aqueduct
during the first week of the meeting and did it so neatly that the form players jotted down particulars in their note books. John Hyland has been training Brigadier with extreme caution and it is said that this noted thoroughbred will, with 105 pounds, be among the public's first choices in the first big handicap of the year. Motley's victory in the Carter Handicap at Aqueduct two weeks ago, has not been overlooked. She defeated Robert Waddell, Pupil, Ontlander, Sidney Lucas, King Bramble, Intrusive, The Rhymer, St. Finnan and others in the most impressive style. Trainer Lakeland says that Motley will go to post fit as a fiddle.

"All Gold is fancied somewhat because of his early season form and the fact that he is in the big race at 98 pounds. Wyndham Walden's Contestor, that has been training in Maryland, may be a factor, as Walden feels confident that he will be in the money. The Keene entries, Voter, Toddy, Militant and Unmasked, have been working steadily at the New Jersey farm.
Voter, it is said, has been doing miles in 1:50, buck jumping. Banastar wintered at Monmouth Park, but since his arrival at Westchester his trainer, Hill, says he has seen enough improvement to make him believe that the son of Farandole—Blessing has a royal chance to win. Arthur Featherstone's Mesmerist and Black Fox must also enter into the calculations, according to the 'rail birds.' "

Winner—B. c. by Boundless—May Bee.

Went to post at 2:15. At post 13 minutes. Start good. Won easily; the next four were lapped on one another and driving to the limit. John A. Clarke was well ridden and won like a colt of more than ordinary class. He is a fine looking youngster that should train on. Hat Mitchell acted badly at the post, as did John A. Clarke, these two being the cause of the long delay. Hat Mitchell is fast, but a non-stayer. In the final furlong he quit badly and barely lasted long enough to finish second. Brissac was under pressure for the last three furlongs. Last Knight was bumped and jostled and met with much interference on the far turn. He was third twenty feet from the wire but hung at the end. Count Perepoint is a good looking colt and has worked well. Amote ran far out in all breakaways from the post. This ruined whatever chance he had.

Overweights—Birthday Present, 1 pound.

John A. Clarke, show, 1 to 2. Hat Mitchell, show, out. Brissac, show, evens. Amote, show, 1 to 2.

24598 SECOND RACE—1 Mile. Purse $400; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Winner—B. g. by Preston—Sophia.

Went to post at 2:55. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driven out; second and third the same. Prestar's win was the biggest fluke of the meeting. He was driving and out to the last ounce on the stretch turn, where Patroon was running easily. Rounding into the stretch, however, the latter bolted to the extreme outside, losing about ten lengths and incidentally the race. Baker did the best he could to keep Patroon in, and, from the eighth post home, was beating him over the head with the butt end of the whip. In the meantime Prestar slipped up on the rail and stole the race. Ice finished gamely under a hard drive. Vincennes quit in the stretch and Tillie W. gave it up on the far turn. Martha Fox could not get out of her own way. El Derim will do better in the mud.

Prestar, show, 2 to 1. Patroon, show, out. Ice, show, 4 to 5. Vincennes, show, 7 to 10. Tillie W., show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. c. by Bersan—Katherine Bassett.

Went to post at 3:20. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly; second and third under full sail. Henry Burt got away well in his stride, had clear sailing, was well rated in front and at the end had something in reserve. This race was a great improvement over his last. Dyxona made a fine showing. He got the worst of the break, was sharply interfered with on the first turn and was, in fact, badly ridden throughout. He is a grand looker and should turn the tables on Henry Burt before long. Leo Newell had no mischances. Odnor was hard ridden to keep up in the first three-quarters, but when Jackson saw he was beaten, in the stretch, he wisely eased him up.

No show betting.

Winner—Ch. f. by Julien—Barcarola.

Went to post at 3:45. At post 11 minutes. Start good. Won in a terrific drive; second the same. Barouche is a high-class filly, displayed great gameness and was the best. Crowhurst drew his whip on her shortly after passing the three furlongs post and from there home he was flogging for all he was worth. Barouche skinned the rail on the stretch, saving as much ground as possible and from the furlong post home, slowly but surely wore down Yana's long lead. Yana and Barouche both acted badly at the post. The former would run far out in all break-aways, while Barouche insisted on going the wrong way of the track. Hoodwink ran a good race, but is no match for either of the other two fillies.

Winner—B. g. by Kingston—Carmenita.

Went to post at 4:20. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second and third were driving. Jake Weber broke fully in his stride, had speed to loan and was never fully extended. He seems to be a most uncertain horse these days. Red Apple ran another good race. He hung close to Ed Adack all the way and outgamed the latter at the end. Ed Adack had no mischances and did his best. Trebor showed no high speed whatever, his performance being a very poor one for an even money chance.

Jake Weber, show, 3 to 5. Red Apple, show, 2 to 1. Ed Adack, show, out. Trebor, show, out.

Winner—Br. h. by Logic—Annona.

Went to post at 4:50. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden; the next three were driving. Annowan ran an extremely game race. He sulked in the first part of it and seemed hopelessly beaten when going down the backstretch, but in the last three furlongs he took a notion to run and was going away at the finish. Cora Havill II. was ridden with bad judgment. After getting away poorly Gormley used her entirely too much in trying to get to the front, and when the pinch came the filly was naturally done. Chauncey Fisher was given a fine ride and ran the best race of his career. Lissome ran a much better race than the figures show under a bunglesome ride. It was an inferior field.

Overweights—Golden Scepter, 2 pounds.

Annowan, show, 2 to 5. Cora Havill II., show, evens. Chauncey Fisher, show, 4 to 5. John Grigsby, show, 4 to 5.

Went to post at 3:05. At post 25 minutes. Start bad. Won handily; second driving. Malden was given a lucky start and at last received a capable ride. He was probably the best anyway. Mizpah ran a good game race under a vigorous ride, but was lucky to be second. Oliver Mc suffered from interference and otherwise might have been a close up second. He finished fast. Allaire ran a surprisingly good race for her, the best of her career. Disturber, with a fair start and judicious ride, might have been in the money. Billionaire ran an improved race and may regain his form with more work. Kentucky, off badly, showed a burst of speed and died away at the end. Mauga had no chance at the start. Songster has very bad underpinning.

Went to post at 3:55. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Sadducee outclassed this field purely on a speed basis. Being thick winded, he cannot stay among good ones. Tyr Shena was allowed to hopelessly fall out of the race in the first furlong, but closed a tremendous gap and was running great guns at the finish. This horse is greatly improved and will take much beating at a mile or over. Lucky Star struggled gamely to keep within striking distance of the winner and the effort made him tire at the end. Cherry Wild ran a very fair race, but is best in mud.

Winner—B. f, by St. Leonards—Elsie.

Went to post at 4:22. At post 4 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second driving. Elsie L. can beat at this kind of breaking sticks. She is a very quick breaker, speedy and game and had the advantage of a first-class ride. Juvenile ran a good race and is speedy and consistent. C. Rosenfeld showed, at last, a taste of his reputed speed, the fast track being responsible. He was second best and closed a big gap. Edwin Kenton finished well after being badly shut off in the first sixteenth and was inadequately handled. Postillion, off badly, steadily made up ground.

Scratched—(24576)April Shower, 104; 24497 Wait a Minute, 97.

Overweights—C. Rosenfeld, 1 pound; Edwin Kenton, 1; Leslie Bruce, 1.

Winner—Ch. h, by Fonso—Wait a While.

Went to post at 4:55. At post 10 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second easily. Wait Not was easily the best, is showing good form and can beat better ones. McGrathiana Prince proved his liking for a distance in this race and showed surprisingly good form. Matt Simpson has heretofore stayed better apparently, but he met too high-class ones in those in front of him. Dog Town's race was also a surprise. Double Dummy can do better. Scurry got off badly and had no chance with his light rider. Hardy Pardee's race should be thrown out.

Scratched—24551 Buffoon, 117; 24437 Kirkwood, 112.

Wait Not, show, out. McGrathiana Prince, show, 5 to 1. Matt Simpson, show, 4 to 5. Scurry, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. f, by Hastings—Clarinda.

Went to post at 5:20. At post 4 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second driving. Miss Hastings outbroke her field and was easily best. She is speedy and game. G. Whittier is a big, long-striding colt and no small jockey can do him justice. He is evidently nearly high-class and racing will improve him. Major Daniels ran very green and fell back apparently beaten at the critical point. He came again, however, like a good one and has been highly tried. Lombre was running fast at the end and closed a big gap.

Scratched—242833Playlike, 108; 24550 Carmion, 108; 24408 Halma B., 108; 24464Merry Hours, 105; 245542Margie S., 105.

Winner—B. g, by Deceiver—Nantucket.

Went to post at 2:10. At post 4 minutes. Start good. The first three were driving. Decoy, under a good ride, came like a shot at the end and was best. Barney F. showed plenty of early speed, but tired at the close. Lost Girl made up ground and finished strongly. Spry Lark did well to the last sixteenth. Guilder ran in improved form.

Overweights—Lost Girl, 5 pounds; Guilder, 4; Spry Lark, 5; Del Vista, 4; Sam Dannebaum, 2; Aluminum, 2; Harry Thatcher, 5.
